Iron Springs Chateau Melodrama Dinner Theater Stages Holiday Extravaganza Revue

Running Nov. 30 through New Year's Eve, the Iron Springs Chateau Melodrama Dinner Theater in Manitou Springs will present its "Holiday Extravaganza Revue," a new venue sure to delight holiday audiences.

Scouring their files, the Chateau production staff has compiled a two-hour revue of unique music, dance, and comedy numbers with a holiday theme, lots of audience participation and an emphasis on comedy.

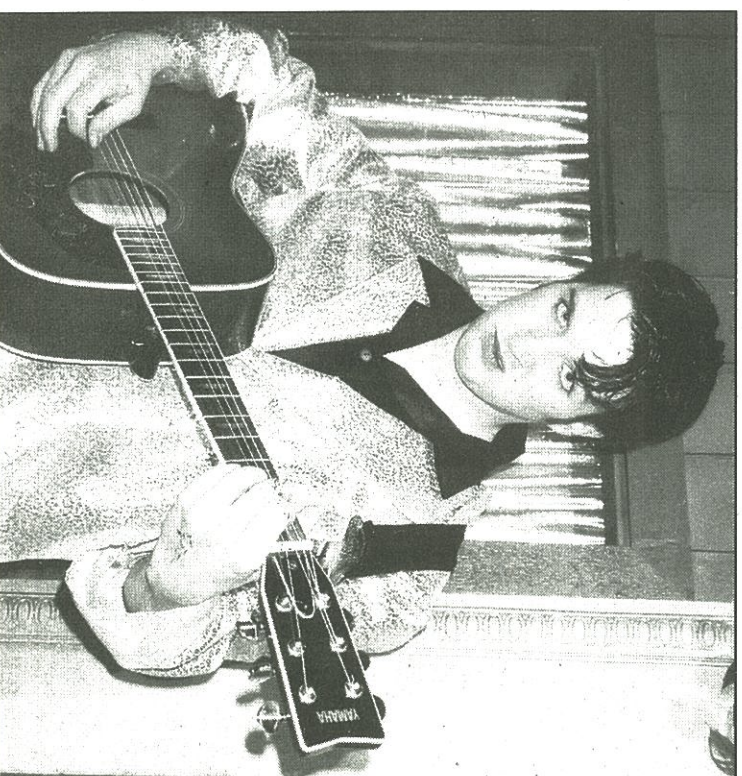

Desiring to avoid the same numbers the public is inundated with over every department store intercom, the Chateau Holiday Extravaganza Revue is full of innovative and creative options to the usual holiday fare. From mean little kids getting "nuttin'" for Christmas, to an exquisite vocal rendition of "Moonlight in Vermont," to an island Christmas number done ala the Andrews Sisters, to a snowflake fairy turning the world to white, to dogs barking out a jingle bells tune, to one of the most famous holiday movies rendered in four minutes, the Chateau Revue is sure to have something for all ages. And, yes, Elvis will be entering the building.

The cast includes Lori Adams, Tim Urbany, Rebekah Ratteree, Kevin Morgan, August Mergelman, and Robin Stewart. Bruce Littrell will present an all new Sing-A-Long Intermittent celebrating birthdays and anniversaries in the house and allowing the audience to warm-up their vocal cords on some well-loved holiday standards. The musical accompaniment is provided by musical director Kathy Okvath, with the assistance of Bruce Littrell. The production is choreographed by Robin Stewart and Vicki Kelly with costumes by Vicki Kelly and Sandra Casey, props by Bob and Vicki Kelly, and technical direction by Michael Casey.

Accompanying the Holiday Extravaganza Revue is the Chateau's ever-popular, seconds-are-free barbequed beef brisket and oven-fried chicken family-style dinner with all the fixin's. Full bar service is provided through out the evening. Reservations are highly suggested by calling 685-5104 or 685-5572. Adult, senior, children, show-only, and group rates are available.
