

Iron Springs Chateau

Dinner Theater's "2003 Holiday Extravaganza Revue"

Back by popular demand, the second-annual "holiday Extravaganza Revue" will be presented at the Iron Springs Chateau Dinner Theater, in Manitou Springs, from Nov. 29th-Dec. 27th. An all-new, fun-filled potpourri of creative comedy, beautiful vocal, and exciting choreography numbers, the Revue is sure to have something for everyone! With a dynamic Sing-A-Long Intermission by longtime favorite, Bruce Littrell, it makes a great diversion for those out of town guests.

Yes, Elvis will once again be entering the building with a special holiday request for Santa, and the cast will be making a boogie woogie salute to the old gent. Ornerly little kids will bemoan his sanity while a hilarious comedy number will complain of his presence all over town in a variety of forms. We'll ask the age-old question, "Didn't I Get This Last Year?" and take a fun-filled journey to Christmas with Jacque Cousteau and his crew. Just imagine the fun of a six-foot-tall Poinsettia, and dogs barking "Jingle Bells" around a dancing Christmas tree.

As for song and dance, the evening is over-flowing with a traditional three-part harmony version of "Sleigh Ride" to a jazz harmony rendition of love on the ski slopes. In a tribute to the classical, is an operatic version of "The Night Before Christmas" performed to the tune of "Chopsticks," and we have a jazzy version of "Santa Claus Is Comin' To Town" for the blues lovers in the crowd. Disco is king when the cast goes "Walking In A Winter Wonderland Of Love." The evening is concluded with the traditional "A-Soin," a folk music favorite done in candlelight.

The cast consists of Rebekah Ratterree, August Mergleman, Missi Thomson, Tim

Urbany, Danine Schell, and Paul Forsett. Musical direction and accompaniment is by Kathy Okvath and Bruce Littrell with choreography by Paul Forsetts, Missi Thomson, and Vicki Kelly. Costumes by Vicki Kelly and Lindsay Hale with technical

Go-Go Dancer -(Rebekah Ratterree) and Elvis impersonator (August Mergleman) perform in the Iron Springs Chateau Dinner Theater's
"Holiday Extravaganza Revue"

direction by Stephanie Ford. General production assistance by Robert Kelly.

Accompanying the production is the Chateau's Seconds-Are-Free barbequed beef brisket and oven-filled chicken family-style dinner. Dinner times are 6-6:45 PM, with showtime at 8 PM. Adult dinner and show is $23.50 with show only for $12.50. Senior, group and child rates also available. Open weekends and other nights per reservation. Call 685-5104 or 685-5572 to make your reservations now. Located at 444 Ruxton Ave., Manitou Springs.